Our mission at Bark is to provide our customers with an amazing experience. Quite simply, we love hot dogs and this love fuels our desire to create great food and great service. At Bark, we take an artisans approach to fast food. No longer does fast food need to be cheap, mass-produced, chemically and genetically altered, and anonymous. Whenever possible, we purchase our produce, meats, dairy, beer, and soda, from local, organic and sustainable sources. For more information regarding our product sources and environmental initiatives please visit our website at www.barkhotdogs.com.
