

MAINE BEERS

Maine is home to some of the best independent brewers in the world. These are our favorites from home. We'll serve a few every day, so ask at the counter for today's menu!

Shipyard Export $5

A blonde ale with enough hops to balance its malty sweetness, it's the classic accompaniment to a lobster dinner.

Allagash White $7

Maine's take on Belgian witbier, the white is light but more flavorful than a "lite" beer, with citrus and coriander flavor.

Geary's Pale Ale $6

A classic British Pale Ale made on the other side of the Atlantic, it's crisp, medium bodied and hoppy.

Belfast Bay Lobster Ale $6

A medium-bodied red ale that has subtle toasty and fruity flavors, and is hoppy but not overwhelming.
